The Gilmer Christian Learning Center is offering two 2023 Scholarships. This is a one-time scholarship of $500 and a one-time scholarship of $250 provided to deserving student(s) to help with college/vocational or technical school. The winning student(s) should be a college/vocational or technical bound Senior in High School who has shown commitment, hard work, and character.

There are two scholarships and many applicants. The winner(s) will be chosen by a group of board members, no partiality will be shown by the teachers at the CLC. The student(s) must show that they are enrolled in school before they will receive the funds.
